

My 2015 To Do List

Don't make New Year resolutions. Make a New Year to do list.

Your list can include as many 'To Do's' as you want, although 12 to 24 is a good number. (It gives you one to two items per month, but if you want more, go for it!)

Don't forget to tick off your items when they are complete so you can look back at the end of the year and see all the great stuff you have done!!
